Day 1 Tours

Arrival in Tours, capital of Touraine. Beautiful town with its old quarter.

Day 2 Tours - Villandry 21 km

Straight after leaving the city of Tours, you are already on the riverside of the Cher. The bike trail winds parallel to the Cher and the Loire. Enjoy the beautiful view over the two rivers. You will pass the enchanting gardens of the Château de Villandry. For the kids there is always the opportunity to play in the playgrounds and in the summer months bathing in the Cher is possible.

Day 5 Montbazon - Chenonceaux 37 km

From Montbazon you reach Bléré, a pretty little village. Then you arrive in Chenonceaux. The castle of Chenonceau is the highlight of the trip. Catherine de Medicis and Diane de Poitiers used to live in this castle called "the ladies' castle". The gardens are as fantastic as the castle itself, with fun natural mazes for the whole family.

Day 6 Chenonceaux - Amboise 15 km

Today you will cycle through the former royal forests towards Amboise. Shortly before reaching the destination, you will be able to visit an outside museum: miniature castles of the Loire Valley, which is an attraction for children. Amboise is a very lively little town where you can visit the castle and the famous "Clos Lucé" where Leonard de Vinci spent the last years of its life.

Day 7 Amboise - Tours ca. 28 km

Today you cycle along the Loire back to Tours. You will discover the troglodyte dwellings. Before arriving in Tours, why not stop at the Luluparc with its numerous attractions.

Day 8 Departure

Time to leave this beautiful area, with suitcases and heads full of souvenirs and memories!
