Day 2 Dijon - Beaune 43 km

The rolling vineyard countryside is waiting. This is the heart of Burgundy and you will savour it. Don't miss a visit to the wine château of Aloxe Corton, with its delightfully ornate roof, or the 12th Century Clos de Vougeot Château, which was the property of the Cîteaux Abbey for several centuries. In Nuits St Georges you will have a tasting in the world-renowned wine village that has produced wine for a thousand years.

Day 3 Beaune - Châteauneuf 35 km

In the morning you will visit this cultural wine capital, with its famous Hôtel Dieu the ancient hospice, a 15th century masterpiece of gothic art, built after the Hundred Years War. You leave the beautiful wine city and arrive to Châteauneuf after passing through picturesque wine villages like Savigny les Beaune. Châteauneuf is among the 100 most beautiful villages in France and kept its typical medieval charme.

Day 4 Châteauneuf - Dijon 44 km

It is possible to visit the 15th century castle before leaving the village by a lovely small street down to the Canal de Bourgogne in the Ouche Valley. You will also pass a Cistercian monastery before continuing along the waterside to arrive in Dijon by the lake Kir.
