ON GREEN ROADS THROUGH THE REGION FRANCHE-COMTE

The region Franche-Comté in the eastern part of France is rich of cultural and natural heritage. The beautiful city of Besançon with its famous bastille, constructed by Vauban, is even on the World Heritage Site of UNESCO. It is embedded in a river loop of the Doubs river. Many small towns in the Comté region have a very rich heritage of historic treasures. But the actual reason to go on this trip is definitely the beautiful nature and the marvellous river landscapes between the Saône and the Doubs. The peaceful cycle path EuroVelo 6 is part of this cycling trip. This holiday is also a highlight for every foodie. The Franche-Comté is famous for its delicious cheese and its tasty wine.
